

What situation do you see them handling in your head?

What 3 things pop to mind that made them memorable?

How did they impact your career?

What actions did it cause you to take?

What did you leave on the table....what stopped you from taking action to move forward.

Leaders have courage, they are not perfect but they have clarity and consistency. Reflect on your leadership....are you bring your 'A' game or have you gotten lazy?